The Future of Books: How the World is Changing for Readers and Authors Toby J Osborne

“The Future of Books” explores the fate of paper-printed publications, the evolution of ebooks, and the realities of the digital revolution in this insightful, witty, and provocative journey into the new world of reading, writing and publishing.

"Author and journalist Toby Osborne serves up an enlightening, easy-to-digest, and entertaining summary of the current situation and what lies ahead in the world of books.

First looking back at the history - from the birth of the book itself, to Amazon's Kindle and Apple's iBookstore, and a compelling overview of the impact of digital books - we are then introduced to the nuances of the New Way to Read, the New Way to Write, and the New Way to Publish.

As a valuable crash-course on the industry, technology, and options of publishing today, The Future of Books is the perfect primer for anyone who is writing a book or just enjoys reading them."
