Prayer has many forms. It may be purely praise and thanksgiving. Sometimes it is simply fellowship with our Lord, neither asking or expecting anything but a sense of His caring love. It may take the shape of affirmation or meditation. The seven steps in this book are designed to help you develop power in prayer. As you take these steps one after another, you will find yourself walking in a sometimes strange, but always marvelously exciting, world. You will know, in your own experience, the certainty of promise.
