Mary is a flight attendant who meets with a passenger who happens to be a multibillionaire and he takes a liking for her beautiful caramel skin. After a couple of flights together, he decides to ask her out when she wasn't taking a flight and Mary agrees. Joseph then gives her his personal number and gets to make a date with her.

Mary was still in another relationship that was a sinking ship and she was ready to jump. But she always was scared of breaking it off since she thinks that she was going to hurt Kevin's heart and that she thought she would never get to live with.

This makes Mary hesitate for a bit when it came the time to talk to about her past and she also held back a little bit when it came to accepting Joseph though the attraction was mutual

Will Mary finally cut off the dead weight and attempt a relationship with this cute billionaire cowboy who was throwing himself at her feet? Will Mary stick to her boyfriend just because she feels guilty of leaving and wrecking his life? And if she does leave Kevin, will their relationship prevail? Keep reading to find out what happens.
