The 18 quilts featured in this publication capture in cloth the magic and wonder of the kaleidoscope. These stunning displays of color, design, and workmanship are finalists in the 1999 'New Quilts from Old Favorites' contest sponsored by the Museum of the American Quilter's Society. Finalists share with you the tips, techniques, and patterns they used to create their Kaleidoscope block contest entries. AUTHOR BIO: Museum of the American Quilter's Society holds a themed contest each year. This book honors the finalists. REVIEW: A reviewer from Germany states, "This is one of the books showcasing the Museum of the American Quilt Society's yearly contest 'New Quilts from an old favorite'. Each year a traditional block is selected for the challenge and quilters from all over the world produce wonderfully inventive interpretations of the theme block. The quilts selected as prize winners and finalists are shown in the MAQS and a book is produced. Each quilt is presented in color on one page and commented on...."
