Something monstrous stalks a huge, wooded city park.

The Park is a vast, sinister place --- the largest forested green space inside the borders of an American city. But a series of savage attacks have recently occurred the park.

Something that shouldn't exist roams the massive woods --- an ancient evil that draws its very life blood from the primordial roots of The Park. A fanatical nature worship cult considers the park to be sacred ground. But their night ceremonies deep in the woods are used to invoke something monstrous and bestial.

Police detective Mark Reid and reporter Dani Lake risk their own lives when they enter the night woods to uncover the frightening secrets of The Park.
