“Max, is there a reason you’re breaking into your dad’s information?” I hear Nico yell from the floor above us.

“Yes!”

“Okay.”

I stare blankly at him--I would stare at Nico, but he’s a floor above, so Max gets all of my stares right now.

“You two are insane,” I say, when he doesn’t seem to notice.

??

“Oh, I do this all the time at home,” Max says shamelessly. “So this is what I have--first off, whoever sent the email has to be one of the ones that know about the hidden HTV website. I checked the IP against all the hero and villain IP’s in the area, it isn’t one of them. She--or he, possibly--is going through a private network, which means it’s probably from her home. There’s a small chance it’s from someone with powers.”

??

“Why do you think that?” I ask.

??

“Because of the letter,” he says. “You still haven’t read it?”

??

I skim the letter, my eyes tripping over and stalling on one line, “I need to meet her, I have to meet her. I feel so alone.”

“If she wants to meet me so badly, why didn’t she give us a name?” I ask as I finish the letter.
