Are you planning on visiting US? Would it not be wonderful to have information on what to expect once you are in the US? The US through My Eyes is a book that attempts to give general and basic information that you would need for day to day living in US. It's a good book to have especially for people migrating for the first time, since it addresses many basic questions without overwhelming you. It goes over the topics that your family would wish for somebody to help you with. It includes topics such as Job search, Driving, Car Registration and insurance, taxes, sight seeing, public transportation and many other topics. It also includes a chapter for women, since many women are migrating alone. It provides a bird eye view on various topics and introduces you to topics that you would need to be aware of, while migrating to US.
