Green Light (Sam Archer Book 7) Tom Barber

Praise for the Sam Archer thriller series:

‘This has been one of the all-time favourites. Right there with Tom Clancy’s Jack Ryan series and Vince Flynn’s Mitch Rapp’

‘I read all of the books in the Sam Archer series and I cannot say enough good things about each one...I’ve never read a series where each book was just as good as the next’

‘This is an incredible series...the action is non-stop from beginning to end’

‘I can’t speak highly enough of this author and the 6 books in the Sam Archer series. Riveting reading, great plots always with a twist, and likeable heroes’

‘The best series I’ve ever read’

‘Looking forward to reading more from this truly talented writer’

From the author of the action-packed Sam Archer novels comes a blistering new tale featuring the young cop trying not to use up every one of his nine lives.

Alone in an apartment in New York City, a frightened young woman is packing her bags in a hurry. She then heads straight for her car parked around the corner, only two other people in the vicinity who’re just stopping off to pick up something to eat on their way home from work.

NYPD Detectives Sam Archer and Alice Vargas.

After a dramatic and tragic confrontation, Archer is drawn into the case, and soon learns the beautiful blond girl isn't the only one being hunted. People connected to her are vanishing all over New York City; no-one knows what's happened to them, or where they've gone. As he and his fellow Counter-Terrorism Bureau detectives search for answers, they become embroiled in a vicious gang war that goes back over seventy years. The number of vanished keeps on rising.

And soon, Archer is added to that list.
