Harvard Classics, Deluxe Edition, English Poetry in Three Volumes - Volume II From Collins to Fitzgerald

The aim in these three volumes of English Poetry has been to give, as far as the limits of space allowed, a substantial representation of the most distinguished poets of England and America for the last five hundred years. The large scale of this collection has made it possible to ignore the limitation of most anthologies to lyrical poems, and to include a considerable number of long narrative and didactic poems. Thus we have been able to give the Prologue to Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, the most vivid series of types of character to be found in any English poem; the Nun's Priest's Tale, one of the finest specimens of the beast fable; a large group of traditional ballads, including the almost epic Gest of Robin Hood; Pope's Essay on Man; Byron's Prisoner of Chillon; Coleridge's Ancient Mariner and Christabel; Keats's Eve of St. Agnes; Shelley's Adonais; Tennyson's Maud; Longfellow's Evangeline; and many others rarely found in mixed collections. All these poems are given, in accordance with the general practise in this series, in their entirety. The poems of each author will be found together; and the general arrangement is chronological. Includes the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyan of Naishapur, by Edward Fitzgerald, and Sonnets from the Portuguese, by Elizabeth Barrett Browning.
