Seventeen-year-old Hannah Bailey is at the center of a Nazi secret, a secret hidden for nearly a century.

Until now.

It's 2029. And as the United States teeters on the brink of disaster, Hannah's life begins to crumble all around her.

Tragedy strikes unexpectedly.

Someone is trying to kill her.

And suddenly no one—including herself—is quite who they seem.

Unexpected love helps counter the turbulence, but even then, her heart is still torn in two very different directions.

When Hannah finally discovers the truth about her past, nothing has prepared her—or the world—for the devastating consequences.

Love, loss, and life take on a whole new meaning as Hannah's destiny entwines with history to unveil the timeless truth that evil never really dies.
