The Picture of Dorian Gray Oscar Wilde

From the pen of the infamous nineteenth century author, The Picture of Dorian Gray explores the decay of a handsome and narcissistic young man who is the portrait subject of Basil Hallward; the artist who is infatuated by Dorian's beauty. As the story unfolds, Dorian gradually succumbs to the hedonistic view of life, where beauty and pleasure are all that matters; and with the fear that his own beauty will fade, Dorian conjures up a plan to sell his soul. In that bargain, his appearance never changes, but his portrait continues to decay, reflecting every aspect of his corrupt, immoral life.
