Meeting Melissa: A Contemporary Romance Fiction Novel Margaret Ferguson
Julie doesn't know she needs a little miracle in her life until she meets Melissa...

Melissa believes in miracles because she is one. Born with HIV and orphaned at birth during a time when just the mention of the immune disorder still scared many people, the precocious twelve-year-old never gives up hope. As Julie and Melissa begin a new life together, they don't need anything or anyone, except each other.

Peter is a middle-aged country western singer who needs a little miracle in his life. His marriage is crumbling, his career waning and he has to be sobered up before every performance. After one last stint in rehab, he's alone and lost. Until he meets Melissa and her foster mom.

How can one young girl change so many lives? Meeting Melissa is a fun, sassy romance filled with first kisses and first true loves; a sweet mix of romantic interludes that will make you laugh and cry. Isn't it time you met Melissa?
